NOMENCLATURE

The spelling of most orchid names in advertisements in World Checklist of Selected Plant Families that is available online. Spellings of names not in the checklist follow the nomenclatural rules established by the most recent International Code of Botanical Nomenclature (Vienna Code). Although the Royal Horticultural Society (the official registrar for orchid grexes) dictates horticultural usage for registration purposes, it has no authority over botanical nomenclature. When determining which abbreviations to use for genus names, follow those in Sander’s List of Orchid Hybrids (available in AQ Plus).

The American Orchid Society, in conjunction with its stated constitution and with the full approval of the AOS Trustees, prohibits advertisements for wild collected orchids and orchid cultivating taxes in the pages of Orchids. By submitting advertisements for orchid species, vendors are thereby asserting that plants advertised are either artificially propagated (from seed or meristem) or nursery-grown in phalaenopsis: standards, novelties. AWARD GALLERY CORRECTIONS

July 2018 (87:7), page 541. Picture 14 was captioned as Rlc. Cloud’s Candy Corn ‘Odum’s Orchids’ AM/AOS (Waiakea Leopard + Cattleya Landata) 63pts. The plant photographed is actually a cultivar of Rlc. Tatarown (Memoria Helen Brown × Cattleya granulosa).

July 2018 (87:7), page 548. Picture 10 was captioned as Vanda Thailand Gold ‘Janice Williams’ HCC/AOS (Thananchai × Amphai). This is correctly Vanda chuniaensis Thailand Gold (rhynchostylis coelestis × Vanda Meei).

Submission of articles for ORCHIDS magazine

The AOS welcomes the submission of manuscripts for publication in Orchids magazine from members and non-members alike. Articles should be about orchids or related topics and cultural articles are always especially welcome. These can run the gamut from major feature-length articles on such topics as growing under lights, windowboxes and through discussions of species, genus or habitat to shorter, focused articles on a single species or hybrid to run under the Collector’s Item banner. The AOS follows the World Checklist of Selected Plant Families with respect to species nomenclature and the Royal Horticultural Society’s Orchid Hybrid Register for questions of hybrid nomenclature.

Articles as well as inquiries regarding suitability of proposed articles should be sent to Jean.Ileson@gamil.com, morstokes@hotmail.com or the editor at rmchatton@aos.org.
